“Once we start to think about the kind of world we are leaving to future generations, we look at things differently; we realize that the world is a gift which we have freely received and must share with others. Since the world has been given to us, we can no longer view reality in a purely utilitarian way, in which efficiency and productivity are entirely geared to our individual benefit. Intergenerational solidarity is not optional, but rather a basic question of justice, since the world we have received also belongs to those who will follow us.

Pope Francis, Laudato Si' (paragraph 159)

COVID-19: KEEPING CONTACT DETAILS OF THOSE ATTENDING MASS

Government guidance for the safe use of places of worship states that churches should assist NHS Track and Trace by keeping a record of those who come to church. With effect from Sunday 27th September we will be keeping details of those who attend Mass. Only one name and telephone number will be needed per group. If you decline to provide this information, you can still attend Mass. If NHS Track and Trace contacts the parish, details of those who attended the relevant Mass will be provided. Information will be destroyed after 21 days. In addition, QR codes for use with the NHS Covid-19 app are also on display outside and inside the church. Please note that these are different for the Church and Hall so please ensure that you scan the code with Sacred Heart Church written underneath. From Sunday 4th October there will be a tick list for Sunday Masses to speed up the process of taking contact details. If you provide your name to a steward then you are giving your consent to details already held for NHS Track and Trace within the 21 day time period being kept for a further 21 days from the date of this Mass. If your name is not on the list it could be because either 21 days has expired since you last gave details or you have not provided your details before.

CHRISTMAS RAFFLE

Next Sunday's Mass
Readings

Isaiah 45: 1, 4-6;

Psalms 95;

1 Thessalonians 1: 1-5,

Matthew 22: 15-21

Welcome to everyone at Mass today, especially if you are new to our church or haven't been to Mass for some time.

If you are of another Christian denomination or non-Christian you are warmly invited to approach the priest or minister and ask or signify your wish for a blessing.

Do I accept God's invitation on time?

In today's gospel we hear about the parable of the wedding feast. The invitees initially accepted the invitation to join the feast, and now when it happened, they seek to excuse themselves for a variety of personal reasons. Remember, the invitation came from the king. How could they refuse him and continue to enjoy his favour/protection? Each Sunday we gather as a community in response to God's invitation to His party. The question is what kind of guests are we? The parable shows us three possible kinds of guests. 1. The absentees who initially accepted the invitation, but when the time came, they drew back. 2. Guests without the wedding garment, i.e. those who attend the feast but do not take the trouble to prepare sufficiently for it, as the occasion deserves. 3. The guests with the wedding garment who make the necessary preparation to present themselves as worthy for the banquet of the King.

The parable does not say that the absentees were engaged in sinful activities. One went to his farm, another to his business. These are gainful and noble employments. Sometimes what keeps us away from the joy of the kingdom is not sin but preoccupation with the necessities of life. To be serious with our job is a good thing, but when our job keeps us away from attending the Lord's Supper, spending time in my personal prayer, reading the Word of God, it becomes an obstacle that hinders our experience of the joy of the Lord in our life. Remember, it's not just to fulfil my obligation that I come to Sunday Mass, but to join the celebration of a very significant act of the Lord in relation to our salvation. Then those without the wedding garment: By not wearing the mandatory wedding garment, they were physically present at the party, but not in mind and spirit. The kingdom of God is freely offered to us. But we ought not to take God's grace for granted. Finally, there are the guests who attend the wedding feast, taking care to appear in the proper attire. They had the right attitude, right preparation, and right spirit. They came to truly celebrate!

This parable simply means that, God calls us and gives us the power to respond. But to be chosen, we must respond appropriately to the call in our faith and conduct. As disciples of Christ are we willing to honour His invitation to put our faith into action and take the necessary risks to live an exemplary life? God respects our freedom. Instead of forcing us to do His will, He lovingly invites us. He showers His gifts upon us, and yet when the time comes to show our gratitude, we so often prefer to honour the gifts rather than the giver. If the invited guests in the parable had truly respected their king, they would have adjusted their plans for his sake, putting aside their personal preferences for a little while to show their gratitude to him. Is God a top priority in my life? Do I spend my prime time with Him, for Him? or is He the last one in my list which can easily be missed out amidst the worries about the necessities of our daily life?
