Aid to the Church in Need at Harvington Hall, Brothers Celebrate 50th Anniversary

A Day of Reflection at Harvington Hall

All are invited to join a new Diocesan event at Harvington Hall with Aid to the Church in Need, for the charity's Red Wednesday campaign.

'Where are you Christians' will take place on Saturday 19 November, 10am - 5.30pm.

A day of reflection with talks on Hidden Catholicism by Jan Graffius from Stonyhurst and the persecution of Christians in the present day by Dr Caroline Hull, National Director of Aid to the Church in Need.

Enjoy private tours of the Hall and an opportunity to see recusant items from Stonyhurst as well as items from areas of current persecution of Christians.

The day will finish with a procession of the Blessed Sacrament from the Hall to the church and Mass celebrated by Bishop David Evans.

Celebrating 50th Anniversary Year

Invite from the Brothers of Saint John of God in Wolverhampton and Good Shepherd Ministry (the name of our work in Wolverhampton).

This year is the 50th year since the Brothers began their ministry in Wolverhampton.

We have arranged two special events to mark the anniversary year – a Mass of Thanksgiving in November and an ecumenical service in December.

Supporting your parish

You have asked us how you can continue giving to your parish.

Parishes still greatly need your support.

We do though recognise that many parishioners may be struggling financially, and there is no expectation to give where you are unable to do so.

You can donate via standing order or single donation.
