to receive the Sacrament of First Holy Communion this summer, please would you contact Fr. George SCJ or the Parish Office by Tuesday 28th February. The first meeting for parents will take place on Saturday 4th

HALL KEYHOLDERS

We need two or three new volunteers to be Hall Keyholders. This will not be too time consuming as this role is to help out when the existing keyholders can't do their normal slot. Ideally you should live in Droitwich so you don't have far to travel. You would just be standing in opening and closing the Hall on the odd occasion. Training will be given and it will be a great help to the parish as the Hall plays a key role in the parish family. If you would like more details please speak to Fr George or Caroline Healy (carolinehealy2003@yahoo.com).

DROITWICH COMMUNITY VOLUNTARY SERVICE

Please see the posters on the noticeboard for details of events being held within Droitwich. Please pass this information on to anyone you feel would benefit. If you are struggling with rising costs then Droitwich CVS may be able to help via Wychavon District Council's Household Support fund.
Referral forms are available from the Parish Office. Again, please pass this information on to anyone who may benefit from this support.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY: FASHION SHOW & SUPPORTING PRISONERS AT LONG LARTIN PRISON

SVP are organising a fundraising fashion show, professionally run by Colours, who will bring their own compere, models and High Street brand clothes. There will be the opportunity for members of the audience to purchase the clothes at 50% or more discount. The event is on Saturday 22nd April, starting at 4.00 pm. Tickets are now on sale after each Sunday mass priced £6.00 to include a glass of alcohol-free bubbly. We need to have final numbers of those intending to attend by the end of March. There will also be a raffle with some exciting prizes. Please come and join us for a fun afternoon in our church hall. For more information please see the poster at the back of church or contact DroitwichReferrals@svp.org.uk or 0777 292 7535.

The chaplaincy at Long Lartin Prison has asked if we can collect puzzle books, word searches, colouring books and colouring pencils/crayons for the prisoners to use in their own rooms. Although there is a TV and radio in the prisoners' rooms it is good for them to do some sort of activity. If you are able to donate any of these items they would be very much appreciated. Please leave in the SVP donations box at the back of church along with any hats scarves and gloves that you may wish to donate for our local beneficiaries. Thank you for your support.

REFUGEE COLLECTIONS

Thank you so much for the vast quantity of exquisite crocheted and knitted hats and scarves which were recently donated. A special thank you to the people who packed soft toys and crocheted bags with the hats, what joy they will bring! Last but not least thank you for the handmade blankets, new underwear and pre-loved hats, scarves and gloves. All these items will bring such joy to people in such dire situations. Wool, patterns, buttons and needles to help defray costs are available in the cupboards at the back of the church. Donations of the same can also be deposited there.

PASTORAL LETTER OF THE MOST REVEREND BERNARD LONGLEY

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, The Catholic Church has designated today as Sunday of the Word of God, encouraging us to reflect on the extraordinary gift of the Scriptures. The whole of the Bible, and especially the four Gospels, witnesses to the coming of the eternal Son of God as the Word made flesh in our world. It is our privilege to receive the Scriptures, it is our joy to read and reflect on the Scriptures and it is our task to share the Scriptures with others as missionary disciples of the Lord. The Word of God forms us as we listen to the Scriptures together during the Liturgy of the Word at Mass. We are grateful when our priests and deacons share their understanding of the Scriptures and the insights of their experience in the homily, to deepen our love of the Word of God and to allow it to influence the pattern of our lives. We believe that the Holy Spirit is at work both in those who preach and in each one of us as we hear and receive the message that is offered.

The Word of God gathers us together, uniting us as we listen to its message in the Liturgy. This work of gathering is completed in the Mass as we receive the Body of Christ in the Eucharist. As Catholics we believe that the Eucharist is both a sign and an instrument of our communion, our unity - both making it visible and constantly deepening it and making it fruitful. The quest for Christian Unity is not peripheral to our lives as Catholics - it is an intrinsic part of our mission and it lies within the DNA of an authentic Catholic identity. When we profess our belief, in the Nicene Creed, in one, holy, catholic and apostolic church we are acknowledging the gift of unity entrusted to us in its fulness as Catholics. Through our baptism, shared reverence for the Word of God, our mission to evangelise and to serve the needs of others we are already united with other Christians - but while this unity is real it remains incomplete. While it remains incomplete it undermines the effectiveness of our preaching of the Gospel - it weakens the impact of our work for unity and peace in the world. The need to resolve our differences and conflicts reflects our human condition, for we are not yet perfect, but always in need of salvation. The greatest obstacle to Christian Unity is believing that we don't really need the other churches and Christian communities - that we are fine by ourselves. We believe that the Catholic Church has received the fulness of the means of salvation, entrusted to us by Our Lord - and that we have a corresponding responsibility to make use of them as fully as possible. But we also believe that the Holy Spirit is at work within and through the worship, work and witness of our fellow Christians. We continue to walk along the synodal pathway and as we engage with the Diocesan vision, looking for ways of sharing our experience and resources more effectively - we offer thanks for the examples of service and outreach that already witness to our common faith in Christ. The food banks, street pastors, walks of witness and clergy fraternals can lead us from cooperation to commitment and deeper communion. Please pray with me today for the other churches and Christian communities, and particularly those within our local area - that we may have a heart that is more and more open to the will and prayer of Christ that all may be one. With my prayers for you as another year unfolds.

Yours devotedly in Christ: +Bernard Longley.
